

Excluded Business

- Dividends received by a family member from an excluded business will not be subject to TOSI
- An excluded business is one in which the family member has either worked an average of at least 20 hours per week in the previous year or in any 5 previous years
 - o Seasonally adjusted. Not sure what that means for a grain farm.